

SAFETY FIRST!

The Orangetown Historical Museum & Archives is complying with all rules and regulations required by the Rockland County Department of Health, NYS Department of Health, and the Center for Disease Control for the reopening of a Low Risk Indoor Arts/Entertainment Center. All rules and regulations are subject to change in compliance with these departments. We will update our rules and regulations whenever changes are made.

Visiting the Museum:

- We are restricting the Museum's visitor occupancy to no more than 6 visitors at a time, so please plan your visit accordingly.
- All visitors over the age of 2 are required to wear a mask/face covering while in the Museum.
- The exhibit is open three days a week only - Tuesdays & Fridays from 10am-2pm, and Sundays from 1-4pm, with the exception of the first day the exhibit is open on Thursday, September 10th from 10am-2pm. There will be no formal opening reception.
- We are limiting visitor time to one hour, and no online or phone call reservations will be taken. However, you are welcome to call ahead and ask how busy we are.
- All groups are required to keep their physical distance of at least 6 feet from each other.

Keeping the Museum Clean:

- We are taking all the necessary precautions and measures to ensure the health and safety of our visitors and staff.
- We are frequently sanitizing and disinfecting the galleries, archives/offices, and bathrooms throughout the day.
- Hand sanitizing stations are available in each gallery.

Researchers:

- Starting on September 10th, the Museum will also open our archives to researchers.
- No more than one researcher is allowed to use the Museum's archives at a time.
- As always, researchers need to call ahead and schedule an appointment to research, no walk ins will be taken.
- Researchers are required to wear an appropriate mask/face covering while using the Museum archives, as well as maintain their social distance of at least 6 feet from Museum staff.
